SALT LAKE LOSES TO GREAT FALLS

Salt Lake, Sept. 5.—Great Falls won the second game of the great championship series that is being played this week in Salt Lake, evening up for the defeat of yesterday and advancing an important step in the percentage column. The score was 4 to 1 in the finish and the one run that the Skyers brought over home plate camp showed his batting ability by getting three hits for the locals, one being for a two-bagger and the other for the bases.

Tigers 4, Naps 3.
Cleveland, Sept. 4.—In a thrice-tied game, Detroit won from Cleveland 4 to 3 in 12 innings today. After having struck out three times, Cobb drove in the winning run which was scored by Crawford, who, like Cobb, had gone hitless up to the final inning. Leibold's miff of Dubuc's fly with two out in the eleventh prevented Cleveland from winning in that inning.

Cleveland led two to one when Detroit took its turn at bat in the ninth. The first two batters were retired easily but Loudon and Dubuc singled, while Bush's pop fly fell between Leibold and Lajoie, allowing Loudon to tie the score. Gregg struck out seven men in the first five innings.

Red Sox Beat Athletics.
Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—Boston defeated Philadelphia in both games of a double header here today, 8 to 6, and 5 to 2. In the opener, Philadelphia played a fine uphill game and took the lead in the seventh inning. After Plank was knocked off the rubber in two out in the seventh when Boston down until the seventh when he was taken out. His successor, Brown, was wild and ineffective in the eighth, and Boston piled up three runs and won the contest.

In the second game, Moseley and Houck, who started the pitching, were taken out early and Bush was unable to hold the visitors in check. Bedient was in wonderful form. He twisted seven innings and did not permit a batsman to reach first base. The uniforms of the Boston players failed to arrive here and they wore the traveling suits of the Philadelphia.

Yankees Defeat Senators.
Washington, Sept. 4.—By bunting hits off Gallia in the seventh inning and coupling them with a base on balls, New York scored three runs and won the opening game of the series from Washington here today. The score was 3 to 2. Up until the seventh, Gallia pitched superb ball, at lowing but two singles. He seemed to have weakened when he started to pitch in the seventh and before he had retired the side, New York had three runs across the plate. Although hit rather freely, Fisher tightened up when Washington had men on the bases. Hughes pitched the last two innings for Washington and held New York scoreless.

Pirates Defeat Cardinals.
Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—After losing the first game to St. Louis through errors in the first inning, Pittsburg won the second in ten innings by the score of 5 to 4. Misplays by Carey, Dolan and Miller gave the visitors the first contest, 4 to 2. Both Robinson and Saline pitched high grade ball in the first game. Errors by both clubs figured in the result of the second game, a misplay by Butler giving St. Louis a run in the sixth, and errors by Roberts, O'Leary and Geyer helping the Pirates to two runs. McQuilgan gave way to a pinch hitter in the ninth, with the score a tie, but Pittsburg could not get the needed run. St. Louis scored on run in the tenth on singles off Hendrix by Oakes, Wingo and Evans. Carey opened Pittsburg's half of the tenth with a triple, and Butler scored him with a single. Wagner sacrificed and Miller got an infield hit. Wilson ended the game with a single to left, scoring Butler. Victor protested Umpire Striker's decision on balls and strikes and was put out of the game in the sixth, Butler going to second base.

Split a Doubleheader.
New York, Sept. 4.—New York and Brooklyn split even in a double header here today, Brooklyn taking the first game 6 to 2, while the champions captured the second two to one. The first game went Brooklyn's way when Marquard experienced one of his old fashioned blowups in the sixth inning, the visitors scoring all their six runs in this inning on singles by Moran, Cutshaw, Collins and McCarthy. Smith's double, a pass, a sacrifice fly and an error by Mierke. The New York made their two runs off Walker in the third inning on three hits and a pass. Walker broke a finger in this inning and was relieved by Ragan, who pitched well for the rest of the game.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Tesreau and Yingling. Both were very effective, but three of the five hits made off Yingling were bunched in the third and resulted in Brooklyn's defeat. Meyers opened with a double and Merkle and Tesreau were easy outs. Snodgrass's single scored Meyers and the batter reached third on Collins' wild throw. He scored on Doyle's single. Smith's home run drive in the fifth saved Brooklyn from a shutout. McGraw gave his batting order the most radical shift since the club became a pennant winner in 1911, the positions of only two men and the pitcher being left unchanged.

Wheat suffered from a strained groin and had to retire after two innings of the first game, though he appeared later as a pinch hitter. Showers fell throughout the games.

Browns 5, White Sox 4.
St. Louis, Sept. 4.—After losing nine successive games, St. Louis came to life this afternoon and won from Chicago in 11 innings, score 5 to 4. Rudolph Schwenk, recalled from Saginaw, Mich., twirled for the home team and pitched a creditable game, and but for his wildness in the one inning, when Chicago scored a brace of runs, on two passes and singles by Chappell and Schalk, he would have won in nine innings. Chicago scored another run in the sixth. Up to the sixth inning, not a local player had reached first base. In this inning, Chase muffed Alexander's pop fly. Schwenk singled, and Alexander stole third. Pratt doubled and Alexander and Schwenk tallied, Austin walked and Walker singled, scoring Pratt and Austin.

Lucky singles by Chappell and Schalk in the ninth, followed by Berger's sacrifice fly, tied it for the visitors. Russell was relieved by Scott in the ninth. St. Louis won out after one was out. Pratt singled and was sacrificed to second by Walker. Williams then sent out a hot single, scoring Pratt.

SAM LANGFORD TO MEET 'LIL ARTHA'

Sam Langford, the negro heavyweight of Boston, is to meet Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world, in a bout for the title, in Paris, December 20. The bout is to be of twenty rounds, and will be staged in the Cirque de Paris, under the direction of Theodore Vienne. Langford is guaranteed a lump sum and a percentage of the receipts for his appearance.

The Boston heavyweight was defeated by Johnson seven years ago. Johnson has refused every overture from Langford since, until now he is in need of money and white fighters will not meet him.

FRENCHMEN TO SELECT FAIR SITE

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—The French commissioners to the Panama-Pacific exposition formally dedicated today the site for France's pavilion, in connection with the dedications, the commissioners and exposition officials participated in a review at the Presidio military reservation.

The commissioners have been charged by their government to take the necessary steps to protect the rights of French exhibitors, and to obtain guarantees that the necessary customs exemptions shall be obtained with less formality and that laws preventing the misrepresentation of the contents of contained goods and the limitation of labels shall be firmly observed.

On the commission's success in winning these guarantees, according to a statement issued by the visitors, and the expected tariff reductions, will depend the action of the French government regarding exhibits.

The commissioners were busy today gathering data for a report to be made to the French minister of commerce, on which the cabinet will base its recommendations to parliament.

DIAS TO MEET UNCLE IN EUROPE.
Berlin, Sept. 5.—General Felix Diaz who arrived here yesterday from London, says all the reports received by him concerning the prospects of his election to the presidency of Mexico are favorable. He believes his chances of election are good. He says he expects Provisional President Huerta will be neutral.

General Diaz expresses the utmost confidence in his own ability to restore order in Mexico in case he should be elected and declared that any strong president can restore order.

General Diaz refrained from expressing any opinion concerning President Wilson's policy, saying he was without information on the subject.

Senors Diaz came here with his husband and they will stay here a few days before proceeding to Biarritz to meet General Porfirio Diaz, the former Mexican dictator, whom he intends to join in time to be present at the celebration of his birthday, September 15.

General Felix Diaz reiterated that he had no political mission in Berlin and that he merely wished to see Germany, which he is now visiting for the first time, before returning to Mexico.

TONGNAGE OF BEETS UNUSUALLY HEAVY

Dr. E. G. Titus, of the Utah Agricultural college, who has been inspecting beet crops throughout the state, accompanied by C. F. Stahl, of the national bureau of entomology made the statement, that in his opinion the tongnage will be unusually heavy this year in all parts of the state.

In some parts of the country, it is the opinion that the crop will run at least seventeen tons to the acre, which will be a great tongnage. Dr. Titus also was accompanied on his tour of inspection by L. F. Byars, of the bureau of plant industry. The entire party of experts left for Logan last night.

TAHITI PRINCESS IS IN DETENTION

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Princess Ina Salomon of Tahiti, a descendant of King Pomare, of the South Sea Islands, who arrived here today on the Royal Mail liner Moana, is being held at Angel Island by the immigration authorities.

The princess Ina is a girl of 15, and the reason why she has been detained has not been made public. She left her home in the care of Miss Josephine Tilden, a botanist of the University of Minnesota, whose purpose is to educate the young islander. Miss Tilden said she believed there would be no trouble in obtaining admission to the country for her ward.

No. 5. ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL

(Copyright, 1912, by The Mentor Association, Inc.)

One hot afternoon in June, thirty eight years ago, a young man was standing in a grimy workshop by the side of a crude little machine composed of a clock spring reed, a magnet, and a wire. He was bending over this queer machine listening intently. Suddenly he bent nearer, a startled look of excitement upon his face. From the clock spring had come a faint, almost inaudible sound. The young man straightened up and ran into an adjoining room, where another man stood near a second instrument similar to the first.

"Snap that reed again!" he cried excitedly.

The assistant obeyed him, and again came that faint "twang" from the spring in
